EMPHASIS IS PUT ON:

01

Inclusion & Diversity

The selection of staff participants should ensure that benefits of their professional development are available to all learners in the organisation.

Throughout the preparation, implementation and follow-up of mobility activities, the sending and hosting organisations should involve the participants in key decisions to ensure maximum benefits and impact for each participant.

02

Digital Erasmus+

The Programme supports all participating organisations in incorporating the use of digital tools and learning methods to complement their physical activities, to improve the cooperation between partner organisations, and to improve the quality of their learning and teaching.

Teaching and administrative staff can also benefit from digital skills training programmes to acquire relevant digital skills for making use of digital technologies in courses and for digitalising administration.

Green Erasmus+

Organisations must promote environmentally sustainable and responsible behaviour among their participants, raising the awareness about the importance of acting to reduce or compensate for the environmental footprint of mobility activities.

These principles should be reflected in the preparation and implementation of all Programme activities, especially by using specific funding support provided by the Programme to promote sustainable means of travel.

Eligible Activities

Types of activities that can be funded under Erasmus+ KA1 programme are:

- Job shadowing (2 to 60 days)
- Teaching assignments (2 to 365 days)
- Courses and training (2 to 30 days)*

* In case of courses and training, eligible course fees will be limited to a total of 10 days per participant.

Other supported activities

- Invited experts (2 to 60 days)
- Hosting teachers and educators in training (10 to 365 days)
- Preparatory visits

Invited experts: schools can invite trainers, teachers, policy experts or other qualified professionals from abroad who can help improve the teaching and learning at the receiving school. For example, invited experts may provide training to the school staff, demonstrate new teaching methods or help transfer good practices in organisation and management.

Hosting teachers and educators in training: applicant organisations can host teachers in training who want to spend a traineeship period abroad. The hosting organisation will receive support to set up the activity, while the travel and individual support for the participant should be provided by their sending institution.

Preparatory visits: organisations can set up a preparatory visit to their hosting partner before the mobility takes place. Preparatory visits are not a stand-alone activity, but a supporting arrangement for mobility of staff or learners. Each preparatory visit must have a clear reasoning and must serve to improve inclusiveness, scope and quality of mobility activities.

Eligible Participants

- Eligible participants include teachers, school leaders and all other non- teaching experts and staff working in school education.
- Eligible non-teaching staff includes staff working in school education, either in schools (teacher assistants, pedagogical advisors, psychologists, etc.) or in other organisations active in school education (e.g., school inspectors, counsellors, policy coordinators in charge of school education, etc.).

IMPORTANT: Participants must be working in the sending organisation, or must be regularly working with the sending organisation to help implement the organisation's core activities (for example as external trainers, experts, or volunteers).

How to apply?

Analyse the needs and objectives of your organisations and choose the most appropriate activities that can be financed by Erasmus+ programme.

Once you decide on the activities, you will have to choose the most suitable partners, whether it will be a course provider, another school or external trainer. It would be beneficial to contact the partners before the application to discuss the activities and decide if they meet your needs.

The most important part – writing your own application. While writing your application we would recommend you study Erasmus+ guide, quality standards for mobility projects as well as “A practical guide for school leaders” which was designed for previous programme, but the content is still relevant and useful.

DOREA can provide you support in application process. If you need such assistance, fill in the form here. For urgent matters do not hesitate to write as at info@dorea.org or call +357 25 25 66 06
