

AIMS OF THE PROJECT

The primary goal of this project is to involve adults in debates about hate speech online and offline prevention by generating and disseminating a positive messages to improve the mutual respect of all nationals and peaceful coexistence whilst improving their social and civic competencies.

Specific objectives are:

Encouraging European citizens to take action for more tolerant Europe by meeting and learning from different cultures and people

Raising consciousness and awareness of European citizens regards European values and active citizenship

Improving curricula for tolerance education and promoting work with immigrants, refugees and minorities among adults

Supporting active citizenship by initiating intercultural activities in partner countries for better mutual understanding and cooperation

ABOUT THE PROJECT

Project is designed to upgrade the competencies of educators who work in different adult educational contexts addressing and promoting tolerance, culture and respect to human rights in their learning activities.

This aspect is not usually spread in adult learning contexts. We believe that creating an inclusive learning environment based on a friendly approach we can raise a more tolerant attitude in groups of adults coming from different backgrounds.

OUTCOMES OF THE PROJECT

E-book for adult educators containing a set of innovative tested methods to teach tolerance, social and cultural diversity, anti-discrimination

Pilot training events - locals will have the ability to practise innovative methods to raise their tolerance and cultural awareness

Promotional materials - will help with conveying a positive message regards raising tolerance and awareness for cultural and social diversity

Greater cultural awareness – adult educators and adults will exchange teaching and learning experience as well as share the knowledge of their culture and local customs, etc.
